

Life!

Strophe:

Have you been to the moon?
And did you make it back?
Did ya reach for the stars?
Did your boys pick up the slack?

Don't go feelin guilty
Cause we only got one chance
If you think we're born again
You'll miss the final dance

Repeat, repeat, rehash and swear
In the end it's all been said
Don't give up and fuck up, pucker up and stay up
And we'll all sleep happy when we're dead

Bridge:

Is the young dream to live like you are dying?
Or the dying dream to live like you are young?
I don't deserve credit and I ain't creative
I just copy what the wiser men have sung.

Strophe:

Can you follow the story?
Have you figured out the point?
Are you lost and bewildered?
Have you not put down the joint?

In the end it doesn't matter
Cause it's always more than words
And perhaps you will see
Good things come in thirds

But forget it, saddle up & ride it,
Just make sure ya hold on tight
A brilliant genius, I wish I was
But even they ain't got it right

Bridge:

Is the young dream to live like you are dying?

Or the dying dream to live like you are young?
I don't deserve credit and I ain't creative
I just copy what the wiser men have sung.

Refrain:

Life is about finding your balance
To find out who you are
You have to ask your self have I gone to far

Strophe:

There is a gentle balance
For life and intellect
If you've found an answer
You've earned my respect

It ain't about the money
And it ain't just for fun
We can't change our record
And we can't hide from the sun

In the simple life there's somethin missin
